

Anti-bullying Week- 'Power For Good'

14th-18th November 2016

Friday 11th November 2016

Dear Parents/Carers,

As some of you may be aware, the week commencing Monday 16th November is national Anti-Bullying week. The theme this year is 'Power For Good'. At St Ignatius Catholic Primary School we will spend the week reinforcing our anti-bullying stance and encouraging the pupils to discuss bullying issues and how to deal with them.

As a school we are pro-active in ensuring your child feels safe and are free from bullying. We do this by promoting positive behaviour, including good manners, kindness and how to be a good friend. During Anti-Bullying Week your children will be taking part in activities to support their understanding of the different types of bullying, their rights to be happy and safe, and their responsibilities towards bullying.

In order to show that as a school community we are standing together against bullying we are asking the children to wear something blue next Thursday (17th November). This may be blue socks, hair band, blue t-shirt, a blue jumper or any other item of clothing.

Further information on Anti-bullying week can be found at www.anti-bullyingalliance.org.uk

Yours Sincerely

Miss Taylor
