

Know Your Housing Rights Workshops

UCL

Are you or have you experienced problems with housing?

Would you like to learn more about what your legal rights are and how to enforce them?

If the answer to either of these questions is yes, then come along to our housing rights workshops!

University College London (UCL) Centre for Access to Justice is partnering with Haringey Citizens and law firm Hodge Jones & Allen to offer a series of workshops* on housing law issues most likely to affect you.

The workshops will be led by UCL law students, with the assistance of solicitors and paralegals from Hodge Jones & Allen. There will be opportunities to ask questions. There will be four workshops, on a range of topics:

- Tenancy Rights and Responsibilities - Tuesday 14th March at St Mary's Catholic Priory School N15 5RE, 5.15pm - 6.30pm
- Disrepair - Wednesday 15th March at St Ignatius Primary School N15 6ND, 5.15pm – 6.30pm
- Homelessness, Temporary Accommodation and Allocation - Tuesday 21st March at St Mary's N15 5RE, 5.15pm - 6.30pm
- Possession and Eviction - Wednesday 22nd March at St Ignatius Church, Stamford Hill N15 6ND, 7.15pm – 8.30pm

Attendance to the workshops is completely free and there is no need to sign up.

If you have any questions about the workshops, please e-mail or phone Rose Ireland, CAJ Fellow (rose.ireland@ucl.ac.uk, 020 3108 8391).
